

Learn from Interviews

-For all UPSC aspirants

The Civil service examination is a national competitive examination in India. It is conducted by UNION PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION for recruitment to higher civil services of government of India including IAS, IPS, IFS etc. This examination is conducted in three phases: 1)preliminary examination 2)main examination 3) personal interview. Only few members will pass all the three levels and recruited in civil services.

SHRUTI SHARMA

AIR-01, UPSC-2021

Let us have a glance look at the interview of
SHRUTI SHARMA

99

Shruti sharma, a topper of UPSC exams, belongs to a privileged background. She was born in bijnore city and completed her studies in Delhi, India. She has completed her graduation from saint stephen college. Currently, she is pursuing post graduation from jawaharlal nehru university. When we talk about her hobbies, she loves to explore new cultures, read books, watch new movies.

1. why did you choose civil services?

Ans:Sruthi replied that she had lot of reasons. Some of them are:

- 1.she wanted to give back to society in some way, to bring a sort of change.
- 2.She believes the diversity and scope that these services provide avenue for great personal growth and avenue for learning a lot.

2. How is school/college debate is different from parliamentary debate?

Ans: sruthi answered that the structure of debate is three-on-three format so while the certain positions were the same such as opposition.

There is a whip speech as well. The parliamentary debates at school were on a particular topic they were most structured and within a certain time limit as so compared to parliamentary debates in the parliament are bit longer and not in point to point format.

3. Basically we are celebrating 75th year of India independence so now even after 75 yrs of independence and progress on various fronts still we have a good number of people suffering from poverty?

Ans: sruthi answered that a lot of progress has happened since the time period of India independence we are close to 60 to 70 % people who are below the poverty line to currently today to where close to 20% are considered according to the committee report so a certain progress has taken place and the progress is ongoing so but simply because of the huge challenges associated with such a large country with such a huge population and the over dependence of agriculture to a certain context but government steps are ongoing to reduce these hurdles by taking steps in the realm of industry in the teritary sector and other spaces.

4. As a civil servant how do you think that your knowledge, your education, your experience will be fitting into an civil servant?

Ans: sruthi answered that as per her background is history can help her understand present social realities in more wholesome way and therefore solve them using that background of history and the social sciences. Secondly she believes that she had an ethic of dedication towards her work and personalized work ethic where is able to stick deadlines and perform work in an organized manner.

5.You do not seem any keen on joining police services, any reason?

Ans:sruthi replied that she would like to join in any kind of civil services where she has been providing an opportunity but since she was provided these many options as compared to the other services above it she personally feels that she temperamentally suited for the other services and she have talked to other friends and it also involves arms and training and she would personally feel uncomfortable with but I would be overjoyed if she get to performed in these services and perform with best of my abilities.

A photograph of a sailboat on a lake at sunset. The sky is a warm orange and red. The sun is low on the horizon, creating a bright reflection on the water. In the distance, there are faint outlines of mountains. The sailboat is positioned in the center-left of the frame, with its sail partially unfurled. The text is overlaid on the bottom half of the image.

— THANKS! —

Hope it is useful for you all...

From content writing club ..